Hague, February 7, N. S.

BY Letters from Petersbourg of the 17th of January we are told, that the laſt Account they had received from Field Marſhal Count Munich, was, that he was arrived with his Army at Iſum, in the Neighbourhood of Aſoph; that he had cauſed ſome Batteries to be erected there on the Side of the River which running by Aſoph falls into the Black Sea, to hinder on occaſion the Paſſage of any Veſſels from that Sea to Aſoph; for undertaking the Siege of which Place he was making great Preparations, in Caſe of a Rupture with the Ottoman Porte. On the other Hand, the lateſt Advices from Conſtantinople import, that the Turkiſh Court ſought by all Means to avoid a Breach with the Ruſſians; to which End, they had not only diſavowed their having given any Orders to the Tartars to make the Motions they lately did towards the Frontiers of Muſcovy, but had diſpatched a Capigi Bathi or Meſſenger of State, to the Crimea, with Orders to the Tartar Kan to repair to Conſtantinople, which moſt People believed was in order to his being depoſed. 'Tis adviſed from Vienna the 25th paſt, that the Preparations for the Marriage of the Archdutcheſs Maria Tereſa with the Duke of Lorrain were continued with all Diligence, and that the Pope's Nuncio was to be preſent at the Nuptials, and perform the Ceremony of giving the Apoſtolical Benediction to the Bride and Bridegroom. Prince Eugene of Savoy had been very dangerouſly ill, but by the Aſſiſtance of the Chevalier Garelli, the Emperour's chief Phyſician, was in a fair Way of Recovery. Letters from Berlin of the 31ſt paſt relate, that it had been ſignified to the Poliſh Nobles and Gentlemen remaining at Konigsberg, that it was expected that before the neceſſary Paſſports for their ſafe Departure from thence were delivered to them, they ſhould each of them in particular give Security for their furniſhing two tall Men for the King of Pruſſia's Service, ſoon after their Return to Poland, in Acknowledgement of the ſeaſonable Refuge and Retreat which his Pruſſian Majeſty had granted them in his Dominions.

Whitehall, Jan. 16, 1735-6.

Whereas an anonymous Letter was found in the Houſe of William Stockdale at Scarborough, in Yorkſhire, on the 25th of December laſt, directed to Squire Osberton, at his Lodgings in Scarborough, ſuppoſed to be intended for William Oſbaldeſton, Eſq; requiring Twenty Pounds to be laid in a certain Place, in the ſaid Letter mentioned, and threatning, in Caſe of Refuſal, to ſet Fire to his Houſe, and do other Miſchief to his Eſtate: His Majeſty, in order to diſcover the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing or ſending the ſaid Letter, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to them, or any of them, (except the Perſon who wrote it) ſo as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
